

Chunky Chocolate Pudding

PREPARATION TIME
10 minutes

COOKING TIME
none

PERFECT PARTNER
hazelnut coffee

You can save both money and calories simply by substituting your local store's brand of vanilla frozen yogurt for the vanilla ice cream called for in this Super Quick recipe.

SHOPPING LIST

- instant pudding mix
- whipped topping • peanuts
- ice cream • marshmallows
- chocolate chips

ON HAND

- milk

INGREDIENTS

- 1 (3-ounce) package chocolate instant pudding mix
- $\frac{3}{4}$  cup milk
- 2 cups vanilla ice cream, softened
- 2 cups whipped topping, divided
- $\frac{1}{2}$  cup miniature marshmallows
- $\frac{1}{2}$  cup chopped peanuts, divided
- $\frac{1}{4}$  cup miniature chocolate chips

SERVES 6

COOKIN' Express

- For a classic party presentation, spoon the pudding mixture into long-stemmed wine glasses and garnish each with a fresh sprig of mint.

Make Ahead

You can prepare this dessert up to 8 hours ahead and refrigerate until ready to serve.

◆ VARIATION

For a whole new treat, replace both the chocolate pudding and chocolate chips with butterscotch-flavored items.

- 1 Combine pudding mix and milk in a large bowl. Beat until smooth using an electric mixer set at medium speed.

- 2 Add ice cream and  $1\frac{1}{2}$  cups whipped topping; fold together until well mixed.

- 3 Fold in marshmallows,  $\frac{1}{4}$  cup peanuts and chocolate chips. Spoon pudding mixture gently into 6 dessert dishes.

- 4 Top each dessert with remaining whipped topping; sprinkle with remaining nuts. Refrigerate until serving time.